It was the most frightening experience of my life. I have never been into this situation before. So, I could never understand the gravity of what had happened. It was the summer of 2009 and I decided to volunteer in children's camp. I was really stumble about spending all my holidays in the camp. After some time I realized that this may be really interesting experience. The campus was situated in the forest. Nevertheless, we had the complexion of all things that we needed. One day we decided to go and see if we can capture on camera wild animals. The place where the campus was situated was known for wild bears ~~living~~ next to it. We took our cameras, special tools for making a good photos and etc. We also took chairs, food and hot tea. The scenery was awesome. We were talking about different things, and we were enjoying our meal. It's been around five hours since we came here. Soon the action started. We saw a bear and got prepared for taking the best photos. We managed to get 3 photos of this bear but ~~that~~ it noticed the camera's flashes and the situation started to intricate us. The bear was running to us and we got really scared but I wanted to make photos, so I did. In the picture you can see my friend Mike, he is running and holding the tool. Also, you can see my friend Eric, who is falling with the camera. "Puer, don't stay!" - they cried to me. "I'm doing my best!" - I replied. Then, the horrible thing happened. Eric got chased by the bear. I saw Eric bleeding and felt overwhelmed. I cried <sup>while</sup> calling the doctors. Fortunately, now he is safe.
