Dear John,

Sorry that I haven't written you for ages. I've got some serious business to deal with.

Answering to your question I live in a flat but sometimes go to a house in country. Honestly I can't understand people who like houses because they are usually situated far enough from city's comfort or very expensive. What about British houses and flats? Which of them do you like most? Where are houses in your country situated - in city or in country? Anyway I'd still like you to visit Russia, maybe you'll like our flats and houses more.

Well, that's all for now. Hope you'll read it.

Good luck,

Alexander.
