New citizen

Our town is very ordinary. We have no cinema, circus or big department store here. However, some years ago a very strange citizen came to our town.

It was three years ago. Summer of that year was very hot. So there were a lot of fires in surroundings. Animals and birds ~~pla~~ were suffered. The administration of the town do their best to solve this problem. In the afternoon some people saw a bear which had come from the nearest forest. It was very strange data! People said that he was very big. Everybody started to scream and slept their mind. The bear went for a walk through the main street and stopped in the central park. All people were in panick, so they didn't know what to do! One man called his friend which worked in the local survey community of helping animals. The group of people came in big car. They helped the bear to go away of the town. They took him to the forest, where he could live in the safety.

We often remember this event and hope that another bear will not come to us again! (190)
